

can tennis

change a life?

We think so. Combine an after-school program including homework, playing tennis, computers, classes, and excellent adult guidance—and you've got a great place for kids.

Introducing the Althea Gibson Tennis Center at Empie Park. The Center will provide the facilities to meet the growing demands for public tennis courts in the Wilmington area and provide a place for outreach activities for the city's youth.

We invite you to join our team and be a part of the future of Wilmington, tennis and our children.
